	1(b) Adaptation License has the meaning set forth in Section 3(b)(1).	Definition added so readers are aware of existence of terms defined below.
1(b) Applicable Copyright and Neighboring Rights means copyright and performance, broadcast, phonogram and database rights that apply to use of the Licensed Work by You; however , for purposes of this Public License, Applicable Copyright and Neighboring Rights do not include moral rights of authors or the ancillary rights described in Section 2(b)(1)(ii) below.	1(c) Copyright-like Rights means those rights that neighbor or are similarly related to copyright, such as performance, broadcast, phonogram and database rights, without regard to how such rights are named, labeled or categorized.	Definition changed to add clarity around the scope of the license. See License Subject Matter 4.0 wiki page for more details.
	1(e) Licensed Rights has the meaning set forth in Section 2(a).	Definition added so readers are aware of existence of term as defined below.
1(c) License Conditions means the high-level conditions set forth in Section 3 (Attribution, NonCommercial, and ShareAlike).	1(d) License Elements means the following terms and conditions as indicated in the name of this Public License: Attribution, NonCommercial, ShareAlike.	Language adjusted to be more accurate.
1(d) Licensed Work means the literary, artistic or other work, content, material or production that is protected under Applicable Copyright and Neighboring Rights and is offered by Licensor under this Public License. The	1(i) Work means the literary, artistic or other work, content, material or production subject to copyright or Copyright-like Rights and offered by Licensor under this Public License.	Reverted to 3.0 term of “Work.” Extra information unnecessary to license removed as possibly confusing.

Licensed Work may be accompanied by or integrated with other work, content or material not covered by this Public License, such as public domain content or works owned by third parties.
1(e) Licensor means the rights holder that offers the Licensed Work under this Public License.	1(f) Licensor means the individual or entity offering the Work under this Public License.	Reverted to definition more similar to 3.0.
1(f) NonCommercial means not primarily intended for or directed towards commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. For purposes of this Public License, the exchange of the Licensed Work by digital file-sharing or similar means is NonCommercial provided there is no payment of monetary compensation in connection with the exchange.	1(g) NonCommercial means not primarily intended for or directed towards commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. For purposes of this Public License, the exchange of the Work or an Adaptation for other works subject to copyright or Copyright-like Rights by digital file-sharing or similar means is NonCommercial provided there is no payment of monetary compensation in connection with the exchange.	Clarified that exchanging Works is only NonCommercial when exchanged for other works. Note that CC will clarify outside the license that this is not a general rule of barter but instead a specific exception introduced to address a known concern.
1(g) Share means to communicate or make available to the public by the exercise of rights granted under this Public License.	1(h) Share means to communicate the original or copies of the Work or an Adaptation to the public by any means or process such as public display, performance or distribution, and by making available to the public in such a way that members of the public may access the Work or an Adaptation from a place and at a time individually chosen	Clarified definition by incorporating language from the WIPO Copyright Treaty.

For avoidance of doubt, the license grant is broad but only covers uses restricted by copyright or copyright-like rights; the conditions are triggered when a work or adaptation (in the adaptation licenses) is Share(d).

For the avoidance of doubt:	For the avoidance of doubt:
2(a)(i) You can make any and all uses of the Licensed Work for which permission is not required under Applicable Copyright and Neighboring Rights without regard to this Public License.	2(a)(A) Any and all rights You have under fair use, fair dealing or any other applicable limitation or exception to copyright or Copyright-like Rights are unaffected by this Public License.
2(a)(ii) The rights and license granted under this Public License are perpetual for the duration of Applicable Copyright and Neighboring Rights in the Licensed Work, subject to earlier termination as provided below.	2(a)(B) The license granted above is irrevocable for the term of this Public License as specified in Section 5.	Shortened.
2(a)(iii) You may exercise the rights and license granted under this Public License in any medium or format whether now known or hereafter created.	2(b)(4) You may exercise the Licensed Rights in all media and formats whether now known or hereafter created. You have the right to make modifications technically necessary to exercise the Licensed Rights in all media and formats. 2(b)(1) To the extent possible and necessary to allow You to reasonably exercise the rights granted to You under this Public License, Licensor waives or, where not permissible, agrees not to assert: (i) Licensor’s moral rights in the Licensed Work; however , Licensor retains all other moral rights Licensor has in the Licensed Work...	2(b)(1) Moral rights are unaffected by this Public License. Notwithstanding, where the exercise of the Licensed Rights by You would violate moral rights held by Licensor, then Licensor waives or agrees not to assert such rights to the fullest extent permitted for the sole purpose of allowing You to exercise the Licensed Rights, but not otherwise.	Redrafted using language from 3.0 to clarify that moral rights are only affected when preventing exercise of the Licensed Rights.

Those rights include any patent, trademark, privacy, and publicity rights held by Licensor, and any rights held by third parties (including moral rights where Licensor is not the holder of those rights).	Added more information to make this clearer.
2(b)(2) To the extent possible and necessary to allow You to exercise the rights granted to You under this Public License, Licensor waives the right to collect royalties from You, both individually and through any voluntary collecting society or any statutory or compulsory licensing scheme; however , where the right to collect royalties through any voluntary collecting society or any statutory or compulsory licensing scheme exists, applies and cannot be waived by Licensor, such rights are retained.	2(b)(3) To the extent possible, Licensor waives the right to collect royalties from You for the exercise of the Licensed Rights, both individually and through any voluntary collecting society or any statutory or compulsory licensing scheme.	Note that extended collective licensing arrangements still under consideration. Only changes in d2 are to simplify for usability/understandability.
